

Area Headstart Classes Get Under Way Monday

Classes at most of 200 Operation Headstart Centers began Monday, according to Joe P. Maldonado, executive director of the Economic and Youth Opportunities Agency.

Operation Headstart is a pre-school program for poverty area youngsters. It includes some 8,000 youngsters when fully under way, Maldonado said. Two-thirds of the classes began Monday with the remaining third due to begin March 14.

The program is aimed at providing children in poverty areas with an educational base that will raise them to a kindergarten-reading level. Each child in the program will receive a complete medical and dental examination and total immunization.

Headstart Centers will be operated by delegate agencies under the supervision of the Economic and Youth Opportunities Agency.

Area centers are located at St. Joseph's Mission Church, 2300 Del Amo Blvd.; Union Mutualist of San Jose, 1023 Henry Ford Ave., Wilmington, and at La Civica Community Center, 1030 East St., Wilmington. All three are operated by the Council of Mexican-American Affairs.

Other centers, to be operated by the Harbor Area Economic Opportunity Commission, are at: Philipino Hall, 243 Mar Vista, Wilmington; St. Mathews Lutheran Church, 2500 S. Normandie Ave., Harbor City; Harbor Hills, 26607 S. Western Ave., Lomita; La Pueblo, 2314 Del Amo Blvd.; Avalon Village Baptist Church, 451 E. 223rd St.; Hammerton Tract, 20527 S. Vermont Ave.; Keystone, 25000 S. Main St., and Normandie, 1105 W. 252nd St., Harbor City.

Temple Beth Torah to Feature Purim Events

In celebration of Purim, family events planned at Southwest Temple Beth Torah will include a Friday night service at 7:30 and Miahah and Havdalah services Saturday at 5 p.m., followed by the traditional reading of the Megillah Esther, (the Scroll of Esther), which retells the story of the Purim Holiday.

An invitation has been extended to all Jewish children and their parents to attend these services by Max Pansky, president, and Herbert Bieber, religious chairman. The Temple PTA will furnish greggars (noisemakers) to all young children Saturday night.

Congressman To Serve on Commission

Congressman Alphonzo Bell (R-28th District) today was appointed to the newly created Task Force on International Education. Seven other members of the House Committee on Education and Labor will serve with Bell in evaluating President Johnson's proposals for the International Education Act of 1966.

Bell, an active member of the Education and Labor Committee, was a strong advocate of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

The International Education Act, as introduced, provides grants for centers for advanced international studies and for the strengthening of undergraduate programs in the same area. Although hearings have not yet been scheduled, Bell stated that he would especially welcome suggestions from groups of educators.

'Man' Lesson To Emphasize 'Equality'

The absolute equality of all men in the sight of God is the theme of this week's lesson-sermon on the subject "Man." To be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday, Bible references include Paul's interpretation of this fundamental spiritual premise: "For ye are all one in Christ Jesus." There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male or female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus" (Galatians).

Parallel references from the denomination's textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include this statement: "Through spiritual sense you can discern the heart of divinity, and thus begin to comprehend in Science the generic term man."

To Show Work Of Sculptors

The work of three nationally known sculptors will be shown at the Harbor College Art Gallery Friday from 2 until 4 p.m.

The artists are Andrew Fagan, Marcus White, and Gordon Wagner.

Exhibits will include welded sculpture, and construction and collage work.
